

1. Did you or did many arson investigators have arson dogs?
2. What are the main stressors that came from this job?
3. What is the best piece of advice you would give to someone following down this path?
4. What parts of your job were dreadful?
5. How often did you interact with people such as; lawyers, law enforcement, firefighters, and families?
6. Is having a fire science degree necessary or just a degree in a relevant field required?
7. Please share one of your most exciting experiences as an arson investigator?
8. What are the most frustrating things about interviewing witnesses at the scene?
9. Was your safety ever a concern when investigating?
10. With having a high risk job, what methods of stress management/coping skills did you use?